Description

Discover this rare pair of Art Nouveau period candlesticks, testifying to the refinement of early 20th-century decorative arts. This set is distinguished by a technical feat of assembly: a finely chased metal structure with curved lines characteristic of the Art Nouveau movement, highlighting and supporting fine porcelain elements. Highlights of this piece: Exceptional craftsmanship: the floral decorations featured on the porcelain are entirely hand-painted, offering a finesse of line and richness of detail impossible to achieve through industrial processes. Unique assembly work: The design testifies to a rare collaboration between metalwork and ceramics, where each material sublimates the other. Rarity of the set: It is unusual today to find a perfectly matched pair that has retained all its decorative
