Description

A large, richly decorated mid-twentieth-century Spanish sideboard in oak, with red leather and copper details, and a metal brace. Featuring four doors and three drawers (one very large), this magnificent sideboard offers generous storage space. Between its elegantly curved legs is an ornate metal spacer. The sideboard features refined copper inlays, two doors sheathed in red leather and carved and painted figures on the side doors. This Baroque style is inspired by the medieval Gothic style. Characteristic elements include linen-pleated panels, mask and gargoyle carvings, pointed arches, rosettes, trefoil and quatrefoil motifs and infills. It has had a considerable influence on architecture, furniture and literature.
