Description

Console d'Applique Régence En Bois Sculpté Et Doré
Elegant wall console in richly carved and gilded wood, featuring a remarkable of volutes, acanthus leaves, florets and rocaille scrolls. The facade, of fine craftsmanship, is characteristic of French Regency style, a period of transition from Louis XIV to Louis XV. The bracketed brackets were for a vase, a bust, a clock or to accompany a mirror in the grand decors of the 18th century. This piece retains a fine decorative presence thanks to its deep carving and its antique gilding in warm shades. Some wear, restoration and missing parts in keeping with age and use.
