

Delft Earthenware Vase Decorated With Chrysanthemums

1 800 EUR

Signature : Pieter Gerritz Kam

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Height : 25,5 cm.

Description

Delft earthenware baluster vase, decorated in blue monochrome with three pierced rocks topped by a bouquet of chrysanthemums; fillets around the edges, floral frieze and scalloped scallop. Early 18th century, circa 1700-1705. Lid missing and small enamel chips. Marked: PK 4, for Pieter Gerritz Kam, Manufacture De drie Vergulde Astonnekens (The three gilded ash barrels). A vase with the same decoration and from the same Manufacture is preserved at the Metropolitan Museum in New York, under inventory number 94.4.370a, b.

Dealer

Matthieu Bailly-Montecchio
Céramiques et objets du XVIIIe siècle
Mobile : 0688679700

19 boulevard Saint Michel
Paris 75005