Description

An elegant pair of glazed ceramic vases with polychrome decoration and a mosaic-like gilt background. Each vase features a rich Art Nouveau composition combining an allegorical female figure, stylized floral motifs, and raised plant ornaments.Typical of the Belle Époque style and signed Catelin, these vases demonstrate exceptional craftsmanship and high-quality execution. They make a striking decorative statement. A rare and spectacular pair, ideal for a characterful interior or a collection of late 19th-century decorative arts.
