Description

Pilgrimage crucifix in olive wood from the Holy Land, late 19th - early 20th century.A devotional cross is made from natural olive branches and adorned with a finely carved Christ in organic material. On the reverse, a red wax seal with the Jerusalem cross authenticates the object, while an antique label reveals the words "Ex Olivis...", probably in reference to the olive trees of Gethsemane.A testament to the piety of pilgrims to the Holy Land, at once simple, authentic and charged with spirituality.Condition consistent with age.Do not hesitate to contact me for any further information or requests for additional photos concerning the items offered for sale.
