Description

Bisque and gilt bronze mantel set, Napoleon III style - XIXe siècle Elegant mantel set composed of a central bowl and a pair of matching vases in finely molded bisque, enhanced by a rich gilt bronze mounting. This Napoleon III-style decorative set perfectly illustrates the XIXe century taste for refined ornamental objects combining the delicate whiteness of cookie with the warm glow of gilded bronze. The cookie reserves are adorned with remarkable bas-reliefs depicting graceful female figures and cherubs evolving in an abundantly floral setting. The quality of the modeling highlights the finesse of the faces, the movement of the drapery and the richness of the compositions, testifying to meticulous work inspired by the neoclassical decorative repertoire. The elegantly shaped central
