Description

Entrance checkroom with mirror and integrated chest, French manufacture by Maison A. Huguet, early XXe century. Elegant mahogany and mahogany veneer entrance cabinet featuring sober, refined neoclassical-inspired architecture. The front features a large central beveled mirror framed by fluted uprights and molded panels. The sides accommodate two original metal coat and hat hooks. The lower part forms a bench-coffin offering practical storage space while retaining a beautiful harmony of lines. The overhanging base with its rounded shapes and molding details testify to careful workmanship. Presence of the manufacturer's stamp: "A. Huguet - Fabrique de sièges - 99 Faubourg Saint-Antoine Paris". Very handsome hall furniture combining functionality and elegance, ideal in a classic, bourgeois or Art
