Description

Magnificent sculpture in white Carrara marble depicting a seated Cupid / putto playing with a snail. The figure is sculpted with remarkable softness and finesse, highlighting delicately worked facial features, flowing curls and finely modeled hands and feet. The composition reflects the elegance of the late Belle Époque and early Art Deco, strongly influenced by French and Italian neoclassical traditions. The serene expression and playful subject matter create a charming, poetic atmosphere, typical of early 20th-century Parisian salon sculpture. Crafted in solid white Carrara marble, this work features a smooth satin finish and sculpture work executed entirely by hand with great attention to detail.

Signed on the base: Signed "C. Giromel - Paris 1919"
