Description

An elegant French travel watch from the mid-19th century, housed in a refined case of red lacquered wood decorated with gilded chinoiserie motifs. Of particular interest is the dial signed "F. Auricoste Paris", a prestigious Parisian maison known for having been a supplier to the French Navy and renowned for the quality of its precision instruments. An object of great collector's appeal, combining decorative elegance and historical interest. The clock is in working order, but the mechanism has not been serviced recently; a service is therefore recommended, and continued operation cannot be guaranteed over time. Good overall condition, with normal signs of wear consistent with its age. DIMENSIONS Height: 22 cm Width: 12 cm Depth: 7 cm CONTACT FOR ANY
