Description

French cast iron figure of a warrior king, probably Vercingetorix, circa 1900. A finely modelled French decorative figure depicting a crowned bearded warrior standing with his hands resting on the hilt of a sword. The figure is raised on a circular base. The subject is probably inspired by Vercingetorix, the Gallic leader who was later celebrated as a French national hero. An unusual example in iron, a material less commonly encountered for decorative figures of this type. Origin: France. Period: Circa 1900. Material: Cast iron. Dimensions: Height: 50 cm. Weight: Not provided. Condition: Age-related wear, patina and surface marks. The condition is shown in the photographs.
