Provence". He exhibited at the Salon des Artistes français in 1891 and 1894. His submissions of cheerful Mediterranean landscapes to the regional exhibitions won awards from the jury and were much appreciated by collectors. The artist produced views of small Mediterranean ports: Martigues, Cassis, Les Lecques, Bandol .. His son Henry Malfroy, also a painter, took over his studio in Martigues. Nb: Old minor restoration, without incidence, is visible on the backs.
