Description

Table circular table in the taste of Willy Rizzo 1970's
Circular table in the taste of Willy Rizzo, 1970's. Top and base veneered in burl (amboyna/myrtle) with superb shimmer, encircled by a brass rush. Black-lacquered central shaft with brass-accented sides, giving a graphic, jet-set silhouette. The ensemble is reminiscent of Rizzo's designs for Rome and Paris in the late 60s and 70s: precious materials, shiny brass, black lacquer and simple lines in the service of discreet luxury. A star photographer turned designer, Willy Rizzo furnished the interiors of the social scene (Paloma Picasso, Bardot...) and created a glamorous, timeless aesthetic. Ideal as a 4/6 place setting or chic center table, it adds a sophisticated vintage touch to any decor. Discover all our other products on our website: www.lantiquites.com
