Description

Landscape of a waterside animated by a fisherman and his boat. Beautiful depth and luminosity, good mastery of colors. Oil on canvas signed lower left by Friedrich Ferdinand Koch (1863-1923), German artist who painted numerous landscapes, often inspired by the surrounding portraits and scenes of daily life. His compositions are balanced, and his figures are rendered with great finesse. Her palette is often soft and harmonious, with subtle nuances to create serene atmospheres. The work of Ferdinand Koch's work is highly varied, ranging from small sketches to large canvases. He has tackled a wide range of subjects, always with a mastery and an artistic
