Description

Elegant compartmented tray in silver-plated metal, adorned with five hand-cut crystal cups arranged around a central curved handle. The radiating decoration on the back of the crystal cups, together with the petal-shaped profile, attests to the refined craftsmanship of the early decades of the 20th century, most likely of Italian manufacture. The crystal cups are in good condition, clear, and free of visible chips. The silver plating shows slight signs of wear, especially in areas subject to friction.
