Description

This Nain rug is distinguished by its design and the harmonious balance of its composition.
Its decoration is organized around a large central floral medallion in shades of ivory and blue, set against a particularly luminous, deep red field. This radiant composition is enriched by a dense network of arabesques, floral scrolls, and finely drawn palmettes. The rug is made of wool inlaid with silk.

The contrast between the rich red of the field, the midnight blue accents, and the ivory details highlights the richness of the design while maintaining excellent legibility. The border consists of multiple richly ornamented borders featuring stylized floral motifs and intertwined scrolls on an ivory ground, adding depth and elegance to the whole.

The perfect symmetry of the design, the precision of the details, and the delicacy of the ornamentation give this piece a remarkable decorative presence. With its classic and timeless aesthetic, this rug blends seamlessly into both traditional and contemporary interiors, adding warmth, refinement, and character. Size : 300 x 200 cm Condition : Slight wear visible in the photos. The fringes are uneven and slightly frayed; there are also some minor soiling marks.
