

Asian Rice Pot Woven And Lacquered - Southeast Asia - 20th Century

180 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Rattan

Length : 27

Height : 26

Description

Charming handcrafted Asian storage pot, probably intended for storing rice or dry goods. Traditional work from Southeast Asia, probably Thailand, Burma or Laos, dating from the mid-20th century. This lightweight piece features a braided structure of plant fibers covered with a painted and lacquered coating. The stylized blue floral decoration on a light background is reminiscent of Asian rural folk art. The original lid is made from a single piece of wood. The original lid is preserved and attached by its antique link. The black lacquered interior contrasts elegantly with the organic, hand-crafted look of the whole. A very decorative piece. Very decorative, this pot has a beautiful ethnic and exotic presence, ideal in a contemporary interior, vacation home, cabinet of curiosities or

Dealer

MELDEVA ART

Tableaux, Sculptures, dessins et oeuvres d'art

Mobile : 0645891037

Victor Hugo

Mont-de-Marsan 40000

decoration inspired by the arts of the world. An authentic piece full of charm, perfectly able to accompany a large Asian jar in the same spirit. Dimensions height: 26 cm approx diameter 27 and of lid: 17 cm weight: 1.040 kg approx Condition Good overall antique condition with wear, irregularities and traces of time contributing to the object's charm. Careful delivery possible.