Description

I'm going to show you three pieces of furniture from the same address. They were made to measure in 1938 on the instructions of the customer at the time. It is now a console on two curved legs ending in a scroll. The curved top contains a drawer with the original knob. This elegant piece of furniture is made of Rio rosewood and superb bird's-eye maple. Restored and in perfect condition, it's a beautiful addition to any interior.
