Description

Pair De Miroirs Médaillon En Bois Doré, Décor Gravé, Époque XIXe Siècle Charming pair of oval-shaped medallion mirrors dating from the 19th century, presented in handsome, finely-worked gilded wood and stucco frames. The frames are adorned with an elegant Louis XVI-inspired engraved decoration of flowers, foliage and scrolls, enhanced by a delicate strand of pearls around the inner rim. The quality of the ornamentation and the beautiful patina of the gilding give this set great refinement and character. Both mirrors are in very good condition. The frames show a pleasant wear of time, testifying to their authenticity, while the antique mirrors offer beautiful reflections and all the charm sought after in 19th-century objects. This decorative pair will find its place in
