Description

Pair of cornet vases/pot holders or mantel set in porcelaine de Paris. Very fine neoclassical decor inspired by antiquity, with motifs of Greek and Roman military helmets, marble columns mounted with bronzes, bronze-mounted vases. Each vase is decorated on 4 sides, responding in pairs with the other vase. Each decoration is unique, with slight variations. The polychrome decoration, punctuated by laurel falls, stands out against an agate-burnished gold background. The vases stand on a palmette base with 4 claw feet. Work attributed to the Manufacture Schoelcher (unsigned). Epoque Empire Restoration, early XIXth century, circa 1815-1820.The Manufacture Schoelcher (1798-1834) was the heirof the Manufacture du Faubourg Saint Denis, formerly that of the Comted'Artois, created under the
