Description

Sèvres soft-paste porcelain sugar pot, sugar bowl or sauceboat, floral decoration enhanced by a blue combed border with gold fillets, known as Monsieur le Premier. Blue mark with two interlaced Ls, letter date Z for 1777, marks of painter Étienne-Henri Evans, active at the Manufacture Royale de Sèvres between 1752 and 1806. This is a production under Louis XVI of a design created under Louis XV. Beautiful collector's item in very good condition. Very fresh and well-preserved color and gilding. The lid was formerly (in the 18th century) trimmed for the passage of a spoon, which can only be done with soft porcelain. A firing defect on the inside. Length 23cm Width 15cm Height 10.5cm
