Description

Irena Jaworska signs here a creation emblematic of her artistic universe, combining textured metal and colored glass inclusions. This mirror features a remarkable work of material, where hammered reliefs dialogue with the deep shades of purplish and emerald-green glass cabochons. With its aesthetic that is both brutalist and poetic, this work is fully in line with the artistic research of the 1960s-1970s. A rare piece on the market, this mirror is as much a decorative object as a genuine work of art, sought after by lovers of French design and twentieth-century glass creations."
