Description

Art Deco Bronze Sculpture Depicting A GolferessCharming Art Deco bronze sculpture depicting an elegant female golfer in an end-of-swing posture, dating from the early 20th century.The figure perfectly embodies the spirit of the Art Deco years, a period during which sport, feminine elegance and modernity became symbols of refinement and social progress. Dressed in a flowing long skirt and wearing a cap, the young woman stands confidently, her club resting behind her shoulders, in an attitude that is at once graceful and dynamic.The sculptor aptly combines slender lines with subtle modeling, creating a vertical composition characteristic of the Art Deco aesthetic. The bronze patina enhances the silhouette, the folds of the garment and the expression of the face, while
