Description

Elegant brown patina bronze signed E. Pinédo, depicting a nude young woman combing her hair in front of a beveled mirror in a gilded rocaille frame. The composition rests on a base decorated with a geometric motif and bears the commemorative pastille "Exposition Universelle 1889 - Médaille d'Argent". A typical work by Émile Pinédo (1840-1916), a Parisian sculptor and bronzemaker renowned for his female figures of the late 19th century.
