

Antique Thai Manuscript Painting Of Six Thewada, Rattanakosin Period.

680 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Other

Description

An attractive antique Thai manuscript painting depicting six kneeling Thewada (celestial beings) arranged in two registers against a rich red ground. Each figure is shown in a gesture of reverence with hands joined in prayer, wearing elaborate gilded costumes and tall ceremonial crowns characteristic of traditional Thai Buddhist art.

Executed in gold and colours on paper, this work was almost certainly originally part of a Samut Khoi folding manuscript. The visible horizontal fold across the centre is consistent with the construction of traditional Thai accordion-fold books used for religious and literary texts.

The composition displays the refined decorative style associated with the Rattanakosin period, with elegant facial features, finely detailed
