Description

Rare early Soviet porcelain cup and saucer, Dulevo "Pravda" Factory, circa 1925-1930. A rare porcelain cup and saucer from the early Soviet Farfortrest period. Produced at the former Kuznetsov factory, later renamed "Imeni Pravdy", the set reflects the transition between late Imperial decorative taste and early Soviet porcelain production. The decoration features a vivid overglaze portrait of a lady in a red wrap, framed by a classic cobalt blue Greek key border and hand-applied gilding. The underside bears a blue factory stamp with the Soviet coat of arms, associated with the 1925-1930 period, together with handwritten pattern numbers 303/1. Origin: Russia / Soviet Union, Dulevo. Factory: Dulevo "Pravda" Factory, former Kuznetsov factory. Period: Circa
