

Antique Japanese Ink Painting Of A Plum Tree In Bloom, Signed.

295 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Other

Description

Antique Japanese ink painting depicting a flowering plum tree, executed in expressive monochrome brushwork. Signed Sokei (??) and bearing the artist's red seal. The reverse carries a handwritten Japanese note dating the work to around Showa 10 (circa 1935) and identifying it as an album leaf. A charming example of Showa period Japanese sumi-e painting, displaying confident brushwork and a strong sense of composition through the use of negative space. Please note: the painting is professionally framed and glazed with non-reflective glass. Despite this, photographing the work without reflections proved difficult, and the images do not fully convey its appearance and subtle qualities in person. Image size approximately 19 x 21 cm.
