Description

Elegant little Scandinavian teak chest of drawers from the 1960s.Swedish work, circa 1965-1970.Small chest featuring a rectangular box in warmly grained teak veneer.It rests on a tapered, black-lacquered base finished with brass shoes, adding a graphic, refined touch to the ensemble.The front features three drawers adorned with recessed square brass handles, a detail typical of modernist furniture from this period. They are assembled with dovetails and bear witness to the careful craftsmanship of Scandinavian tradition.This small chest features a sober, perfectly balanced line, characteristic of Nordic design in the second half of the twentieth century.With its compact dimensions, this chest of drawers will easily find its place in a bedroom, hallway or living room.Chest of drawers in good
