Description

Charming work by Jacques Fernand Gonin * depicting two elegant Parisian women in a refined scene inspired by the fashion of the Art Deco years. The slender silhouettes, coiffed in colorful red and blue headdresses, wear sumptuous fur-trimmed coats, evoking the chic, worldly atmosphere of the 1920s-1930s. Bold pencil and pastel on paper. Art Deco period patinated wood frame. Measurements at sight : 55.5 cm Height / 38 cm Width .In very good condition.* Jacques Fernand Gonin was a French painter active in the first half of the XXe century. A discreet representative of modernized figurative painting, he distinguished himself with colorful compositions inspired by landscape and southern light. His work illustrates a search for balance between observation of reality and simplification
