Description

Antique English chest of drawers from Stoke-on-Trent - 19th century with elegant patina. This authentic 19th-century English chest of drawers from Stoke-on-Trent combines elegance, craftsmanship and functionality. It features five drawers - three large and two smaller - adorned with magnificent decorations on the fronts, superb brass fittings and a warm, patinated patina. Graceful ball feet, traditional mortise-and-tenon joints and high-quality finishing underline the handcrafted character of this exceptional piece of furniture. Thanks to its spacious drawers, this antique chest is both an elegant decorative object and a functional piece of furniture for storing clothes, linens and other personal effects. A timeless piece of English antique furniture that fits perfectly into a classic,
