PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Kundera - Immortality - Autograph Letter

490 EUR

Signature : Milan Kundera

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Width : 14 cm

Height : 20,5 cm

Description

Milan Kundera (1929-2023) - L'Immortalité. Paris, Gallimard. Year of the original edition, March 1990.Autograph copy with fine signature in red ochre ink.Very fine copy.L'Immortalité occupies a pivotal place in Milan Kundera's work, being the last novel he wrote in Czech before switching definitively to French. The novel delves into existential themes dear to the author, such as the quest for identity, memory and the superficiality of the modern world, which he summarizes through the concept of "imagology" (the reign of the image over reality). By blending fiction, philosophical reflections and the author's direct interventions in the narrative, the work represents the culmination of his novelistic technique of the polyphonic essay.We never learn why and how we annoy others, how we are

Dealer

Baudelaire et Compagnie
Letters, manuscripts, photographs, drawings
Tel : 0664238928
Mobile : 0664238928
Fax : contact@baudelaireetcompagnie.com

227 rue du Faubourg Saint-Martin
Paris 75010

sympathetic to them, how ridiculous we seem to them; our own image is the greatest mystery to us.