Description

German Master circa 1860Fishermen Musicians on the ShoreOil on board22 x 35 cmFramedCharming Romantic-inspired genre scene depicting a group of fishermen and musicians gathered on a lively shore. The composition, constructed as a preparatory study, seduces with its lively, free brushstrokes and warm harmonies of reds, ochres and deep greens.The central figure, holding a stringed instrument, dominates a group of female figures treated with great spontaneity. The luminous atmosphere and fluidity of execution evoke the research of the Germanic schools of the mid-19th century, sensitive to popular Mediterranean and Orientalist scenes then very much in vogue.This work possesses all the charm of painted sketches: vibrant subject matter, great freshness of
