Description

Jacques Derrida (1930-2004), La Double Séance. Paris, Tel Quel, [1971]. in-8° ( 22.3 x 18 cm), paperback, first edition, 1971. Separate first edition. This major text was first published in the journal Tel Quel (issues 41 and 42) in 1970, before being printed separately as a volume by the collection in 1971. A fine, well-preserved copy, internally clean and free of foxing. Splendid, soaring dispatch to Maurice Roche (1924-1997), French writer, composer and journalist, a key figure in the literary avant-garde of the 1960s-1970s and an active member of the Tel Quel group. In l'après coup du haschich, this truth revealed: "The inside is outside and the outside does not exist" La Double Séance is a masterful textual confrontation between Plato and Stéphane Mallarmé. In it, Derrida argues that
