

Charles II Cromwellian Side Chair, High Period, Walnut, England 17th Century

180 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Walnut

Width : 52 cm

Height : 90 cm

Description

Charles II Cromwellian-Style Chair, Haute Époque, Walnut and Oak, England, 17th Century A characterful piece with a fine presence, this 17th-century English occasional chair is distinguished by the successful balance between solid oak and turned walnut. Its main appeal lies in the front legs with spiral-turned shafts, enriched by a remarkable double tier of superimposed spiral-turned stretchers -- a particularly decorative detail that gives the piece depth, refinement and individuality. The slightly asymmetrical turning reflects honest pre-industrial craftsmanship, highly sought after by collectors of Haute Époque furniture. Its forest-green velvet upholstery, sober and elegant, enhances the depth of the woods. Occasional chair with a flat back and straight seat. English

Dealer

Résonances d'Histoire

Antiques & Arts

Mobile : 0652439782

Aix-les-Bains 73100

provincial manufacture. Cromwellian style with early Charles II influences. Estimated dating: second half of the 17th century. Mixed-wood structure combining two timber species. The rear uprights and straight rails are made of solid oak, providing structural strength to the frame. The front legs and ornamental elements are executed in walnut, chosen for its finer carving and turning qualities. Front legs with spiral-turned shafts resting on turned feet. The front legs are joined by a remarkable double stretcher composed of superimposed spiral-turned bars. The reinforcing frame is completed by straight side and rear stretchers, forming an H-shaped lower structure. Asymmetrical turning of the collars and discs. Clear visibility of manual, pre-industrial shaping marks. Gouge and chisel marks are apparent on the lower parts and joints. Softly padded upholstery covered in short-pile forest-green velvet. The visible webbing beneath the seat indicates that the upholstery has been redone, probably in the 20th century. The fabric is finished with aged brass upholstery studs around the edges of the seat and backrest. Upholstery webbing visible on the underside. Very fine overall state of preservation, with age-related patina. Sound and robust structure, with no major defects. Measurements: o Overall height: 90 cm o Seat height: 49 cm o Seat width: 52 cm o Seat depth: 43 cm Safe and secure shipping: o France: EUR 80 o Europe and International: Contact us o Professional packing; each shipment insured for the full value of the piece. o Authenticity guaranteed; a detailed invoice is provided with every acquisition. o Returns accepted within 14 days of receipt. o Our pieces may be viewed by appointment. o Does this item pique your interest or curiosity? Feel free to contact us, we would be delighted to discuss it with you. We are available from Monday to Saturday, from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m., at +33 652 43 97 82 We correspond fluently in English and have shipped a wide variety of pieces internationally for many years. Please do not hesitate to contact us with any questions. Excellent customer service, we accept returns up to 14 days, 100% positive customer reviews. Visit our store to check all our amazing products