Description

Elegant and imposing Directoire-style trumeau in rechambered wood, featuring a superb antique patina in tones of off-white and patinated beige, particularly decorative. The front is adorned with beautiful geometric diamond decorations carved on the top and bottom rails. The side jambs are embellished with fine fluting ending in turned elements, emphasizing the elegance and verticality of the whole. The architectural pediment is topped by a molded cornice, enriched in its center with an elegant openwork Medici vase, framed by two decorative pine cones, emblematic motifs of the Neoclassical repertoire. The antique mirror offers beautiful proportions and brings plenty of presence to this decorative piece, which will find its place in both classic and contemporary
