Description

Elegant and refined, this extraordinary early 19th-century Neapolitan console table is a masterpiece of historical cabinetmaking. Crafted from fine mahogany, it features work of the highest quality, embellished with exquisite maple wood inlays that highlight its architectural lines and decorative richness. The original and beautifully preserved Verde delle Alpi marble top adds a further touch of luxury, harmonizing perfectly with the warmth of the mahogany and the luminosity of the inlays. The finely carved legs and the upper frieze, featuring neo-Gothic motifs and delicate wood carvings, bear witness to the mastery of Neapolitan artisans and the influence of the international taste of the era. A piece of great charm and rarity, ideal for enhancing classic interiors or creating an elegant
