Description

Pair of Empire Period (1805-1815) Armchairs in Blue Lacquered Beechwood
Description: These armchairs, emblematic of the Empire style, combine understated elegance with geometric precision. The molded beechwood, lacquered in a distinctive blue rechampi finish, highlights a flat backrest framed by finely sculpted armrest supports. The front sword-shaped legs and rear saber legs--hallmarks of the period--lend these pieces a dynamic yet balanced silhouette. Dimensions: Height: 36 ¼ in (92 cm) Width: 22 ½ in (57 cm) Seat depth: 17 in (43 cm) Condition: In very good condition. The fabrics show signs of use, consistent with their age and authenticity.
