Empire-style Clock In Gilded And Patinated Bronze With A Cherub And A Goose - Early 19th Century

800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

An elegant Empire-style table clock, crafted in the early 19th century from mercury-gilded bronze and patinated bronze, depicting a charming cherub interacting with a goose--a neoclassical motif inspired by the worlds of childhood and nature. The clock is equipped with a fine verge-fusee mechanism, a system used in high-quality clocks between the late 18th and early 19th centuries, particularly prized by collectors for its historical and technical significance. The clock is in working order, but the mechanism has not been recently serviced; therefore, professional maintenance is recommended. Operation is not guaranteed, and the clock is sold as an antique requiring servicing. Good overall condition for its age, with normal signs of aging and
