Description

Encrier De Bureau Napoléon III En Marbre Vert Et Bronze À L'AigleElegant Napoleon III desk inkwell, crafted in richly veined green marble and adorned with finely chased bronze mounts.The composition is dominated by an impressive eagle with spread wings, a motif strongly associated with the Empire taste and frequently repeated during the Napoleon III period. This inkwell combines decorative quality and original function, with two covered cups and a practical nib tray. The ornamentation is of the highest quality.The bronze ornamentation includes laurel wreaths, classical friezes and various details inspired by the Empire vocabulary, while the deep green marble creates a striking contrast with the warmth of the bronze.Both decorative and functional, this antique desk object will find a
