Description

Brass and smoked glass rolling table, 20th century
Elegant brass rolling table with smoked glass tops, dating from the 20th century. This refined model captivates with its sober, balanced lines and the quality of its materials. The finely crafted brass structure is set off by two circular trays in tinted glass, adding a chic, timeless touch. The lower section is equipped with bottle holders, making this sideboard as practical as it is aesthetically pleasing. Mounted on castors, it's easy to move around and will find a perfect place in an elegant interior, as an occasional bar or side table. Dimensions: Height 74 cm / Diameter 57 cm
Materials: brass, smoked glass
Era: 20th century
