Description

Louis-Philippe walnut and walnut veneer cabinet, XIXe century. This elegant cabinet features a front opening with two large molded leaves showcasing a superb mirrored flamed walnut veneer. The rich, warm veining offers a beautiful decorative effect characteristic of quality production in the XIXe century. The gendarme hat cornice adds great elegance to the ensemble, while the scalloped base emphasizes the sober, harmonious lines characteristic of the Louis-Philippe style. The interior fitted with shelves and small drawers offers great storage capacity. A large drawer in the lower section completes the ensemble with discretion and functionality. Very beautiful storage furniture that is at once sober, refined and timeless, ideal in a classic or contemporary interior. Epoque: XIXe
