Description

This acrylic on paper was created by Tran Long, and is typical of this artist. It depicts a nude young girl accompanied by two peacock heads. The work is in superb condition, with only the margins touched. It should probably be framed. Mara Tran Long née Marinette Védry adopted her Vietnamese husband's name as her painter's name. Her work, initially centered on realistic subjects, evolves towards a more imaginary style, where refined drawing and depth of color dominate, while remaining centered on an Asian inspiration. A prolific artist, she has shown her work at Galerie Belle Gabrielle in Montmartre, Galerie Moyon Avenard in Nantes and Aix-les-Bains, and Espace 2000 in Brussels. Her recognition extends beyond borders, with exhibitions in Los Angeles, Tokyo and Oslo. Our
