Description

France, 1960s, very attractive and atypical terracotta sculpture in the Africanist style featuring a female figure depicted standing, hands resting on her belly. Atypical creation of very fine quality with timeless aesthetic qualities. No signature but inevitably the work of a talented sculptor. Dimension: Height 40.5 (cm). The scale indicator on the last photograph is a small model of a lighter from a well-known brand. Good condition apart from normal light wear and possible restoration or firing shrinkage that is almost invisible and has no impact on aesthetics. We take particular care with our packaging by using optimum protection. Shipping includes insurance.
