Description

A superb French Art Deco sideboard dating to circa 1930, beautifully crafted with striking figured veneers, elegant proportions, and refined silver gilt bronze handles. Rich in both decorative appeal and practical storage, this exceptional piece works beautifully as a statement sideboard, buffet, or storage cabinet within a sophisticated dining room, living room, or elegant interior. The design perfectly captures the streamlined elegance of the Art Deco period, with beautifully bookmatched walnut veneers creating dramatic symmetrical grain patterns across the cupboard doors and central drawers. The contrast between the rich darker walnut panels and the lighter figured drawer fronts gives the piece remarkable visual depth and a strong architectural presence. The layout features three generous central drawers flanked by two spacious side cupboards, offering excellent storage while maintaining clean, balanced proportions. The original silver gilt bronze handles provide a refined finishing touch, enhancing the luxurious character of the piece without overpowering its elegant simplicity. The sideboard stands on four beautifully shaped tapering legs, each finished with decorative carved floret-style detailing to the upper section, adding subtle sophistication and elevating the cabinet with graceful lightness. The inset top is currently having a fitted glass top professionally made, which will be supplied at a later date, further enhancing both practicality and presentation. Presented in fully restored condition, with excellent colour, rich polish, and a beautifully finished surface throughout, ready for immediate placement in the home. A highly decorative and exceptionally stylish French Art Deco sideboard with outstanding veneers, elegant silver gilt bronze hardware, and timeless 1930s sophistication.
