Description

Victor Cerrato, pair of glazed ceramic lamps, signed, 1960s Designer: Victor Cerrato (Turin, 1917-2008) Production: Victor Cerrato's studio, Italy Date: ca. 1960 Description Pair of cylindrical table lamps. Structure in glazed ceramic in shades of ivory white, finely decorated with distinct graphic motifs: one lamp features a composition of butterflies and leaves, the other is adorned with stringed musical instruments (lutes/mandolins). Details and burnished brass mount at the top; dark ring base. Dimensions Height: 30 cm Diameter: 10 cm Condition The ceramic body and metal components are in good overall condition. Note the presence of a widespread and characteristic crackle effect (cracking of the glaze), typical of ceramic production of the period and consistent with the age of the artifacts.
