Description

Pair of Art Deco club armchairs in fawn leather, French work circa 1930-1940. Models with generous, enveloping lines offering remarkable comfort. The curved armrests and rounded volumes are characteristic of the Art Deco style and lend the ensemble a sober, timeless elegance. Fully upholstered in cognac-tinted full-grain leather, showing a beautiful patina of use. Wide, deep seats with comfortable cushions resting on a discreet wooden base. These armchairs seduce with their warm allure and balanced design, perfect for a living room, office or contemporary interior blending antique furniture and vintage decor. Epoque: circa 1930-1940. Dimensions: H 80 x W 81 x D 90 cm.
