Description

Style Regency armchair,carved walnutFrance, XIXe centuryElegant Regency-style, finely carved walnut salon armchair made in the XIXe century. It features a flat movement back, framed by curved armrests with cuffs, resting on four cambered legs joined by a characteristic scalloped brace.The quality of the carving, visible in the motifs of shells, scrolls and stylized foliage, testifies to meticulous work inspired by early XVIIIe century models. The structure, in beautiful patinated walnut, has retained all its presence and elegance.The armchair is upholstered in a floral-decorated fabric in soft tones, perfectly in keeping with its classic character. The carcass is sound, stable and shows a beautiful patina of age. The armchair's generous proportions make it an ideal choice for any
