Description

Pair of Brutalist armchairs in oak and ecru curls 1950's
A pair of 1950's armchairs, with solid oak frame and deliberately sober, architectural design. Rectilinear armrests and square legs, with low crosspieces that stiffen the whole. Seat and backrest entirely reupholstered in unbleached bouclette, for a warm wood/fabric contrast. Polished finish with decorative nails along the edge of the backrest, a typical detail of workshop work.
