Description

A rare and sculptural pair of Italian Art Deco nightstands, crafted in richly figured walnut circa 1920. Each piece reveals the refined geometry and craftsmanship that defined early Italian modernism; elegant, architectural, and deeply tactile. The octagonal tops and curved doors create a harmonious rhythm, while the carved geometric detailing along the base adds a subtle decorative accent. Inside, each cabinet opens to reveal a single shelf and a gracefully curved drawer, offering both beauty and function. Professionally restored, the nightstands retain their warm patina and expressive grain, highlighting the natural depth of the walnut veneer. Their compact yet monumental form makes them ideal as bedside tables or sculptural accent pieces in refined interiors. An exceptional example of Italian Art
