Description

Display stand with double circular top. It stands on four ornate feet. The hollow trays are decorated around the edges with a foliate frieze. In the center, an openwork handle decorated with a bust of a crowned cherub. All in silvered bronze. The trays hold crystal bells cut with gadroons and stars, and a silvered bronze knob allows them to be held. This 19th-century display stand is in the Louis XIV /Régence style. Each bell measures 14cm in diameter by 14cm in height. The support stand measures 37cm in length. 18cm wide and 25cm to the top of the handle. No defects to report, the silvering is very well preserved and the crystal elements are neither chipped nor cracked!
